UK Markey Cancer Center

External Presentations

The following highlights upcoming lectures, poster presentations and more from Markey researchers. These conferences and workshops take place around the world, extending Markey’s reach as far as one can imagine.

If you plan to give a presentation at a conference, workshop, or related external event, please contact Jonathan Coffman at jonathan.coffman@uky.edu with details of your engagement.

March 8. Robin Vanderpool, DrPH, CHES will be presenting “The Last Mile Problem in Healthcare: How Behavioral Medicine Can Change the Narrative in Evidence Implementation” for the 2019 Annual Meeting of the Society of Behavioral Medicine in Washington, D.C.

March 10. Robin Vanderpool, DrPH, CHES will be presenting “A Hope-based Intervention to Address Disrupted Goal Pursuits and Quality of Life in Young Adult Cancer Survivors” for the 2019 American Society of Preventive Oncology in Tampa, FL.

March 11. Barbara Nikolajczyk, PhD will be presenting “Mechanisms of inflammation in human type 2 diabetes” for the Indiana Nutrition Obesity Research Consortium Seminar Series in Bloomington, IN.

April 9. Mary E. Vore, PhD will be presenting the Norman Weiner Award Lecture for American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics (ASPET) in Rockville, Maryland.

April 16. Barbara Nikolajczyk, PhD will be presenting “Mitochondrial Changes Synergize with Long Chain Fatty Acid Derivatives to Support Th17 Inflammation in Diabetes” for the Keystone Symposia on Immunometabolism, Metaflammation and Metabolic Disorders in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

April 25. Robin Vanderpool, DrPH, CHES will be presenting “Linking and Amplifying User-Centered Networks through Connected Health (L.A.U.N.C.H.): An Appalachian Kentucky Demonstration Project” for the 2019 D.C. Health Communication Conference in Fairfax, VA.

June 2. Robin Vanderpool, DrPH, CHES will be presenting “The Challenge of Cancer Prevention in Rural Populations” for the 2019 American Society of Clinical Oncology Annual Meeting in Chicago, IL.

June 3. Robin Vanderpool, DrPH, CHES will be presenting “Cancer Center Engagement with Rural Appalachian Communities to Improve Cancer Disparities” for the 2019 American Society of Clinical Oncology Annual Meeting in Chicago, IL.
Upcoming Events

Precision Medicine Symposium (PMS) - Friday, March 8, 2019 | 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

This symposium highlights new advances in liquid biopsies and treatment options for lymphomas. Attendees will also learn strategies for implementing germline testing and CAR T-cell programs and the latest clinical advances in hematological malignancies and GI malignancies, including hyperthermic intraperitoneal chemotherapy (HIPEC).

Register and find more information on the PMS webpage.

Markey Cancer Center Research Day - Tuesday, May 7, 2019 | 8:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Markey Cancer Center Research Day (MCCRD) is a single-day event showcasing current cancer research projects throughout all disciplines at the University of Kentucky. UK researchers – students, post-doctoral fellows, faculty and staff – have the opportunity to share their work in an atmosphere of learning and collaboration through several avenues such as poster sessions, oral presentations, lectures and more.

Register and find more information on the MCCRD webpage.

OncLive State of the Science Summit - Saturday, April 20, 2019 | 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

The State of the Science Summit assembles academic and community-based physicians & healthcare professionals across key disciplines from medical and surgical oncology. Specialist experts serve as faculty for these premier and renowned oncology summits, which focus on the most relevant cancer topics to ultimately improve patient care.

Register and find more information on the OncLive State of the Science Summit webpage.